Elder S. Dickinson. On the 29th June 1840. My wife's sister Susanna & me, & her husband Andrew & Mills came out to Rugey but too late to see her sister, stayed 5 days & set out for Louisa her father's where they now live & have done ever since they were married.

Monday 25th May 1836. It commenced raining & continued on cloudy raining more or less. And on the 5th day of June being Monday it commenced raining very hard and that night. Such a rain fell as never has been known in this part of the Country Mr Muller's mill saw mill & cotton machine & several other <sup>houses</sup> washed away one colt drowned, Lost White Race & the under work of his mill some washed away so that he can't grind meal. Whitehead's mill dam broke, Gower's mill mill house, all gone - Degarrit's all gone, Patrick's, Shanks, gone - all I have yet heard from Banister Bridge gone. Stinking River Bridge gone -

Farewell my Dearest Father Whuere you do live, ye little think your Daughter is now condemned to die - In Heaven amongst the Angels I hope my soul will dwell, so <sup>now</sup> my Dearest Father I bid you <sup>now</sup> farewell, soon as these words were spoken in came the man of Death, and kindled up the fire to stop this Virgins Breath, she cast her eyes to Heaven Lord Jesus she did call, Receive my soul to glory before they face to fall

There has been but little Rain here since 1st June 1838 to now Aug 14th I dont think the ground has been wet more than one inch this summer & such an indifferent prospect for a crop of corn & tobacco now was known about here in 1838. No Rain yet here September 4th 1838. Some small showers passed about on the last of August but none here to wet the ground since the first of August to this morning Sept 4th 1838. There is frost but none to hurt tobacco much. Mr Graves says very cool since the 1st of June it has generally been extremely hot but nights & day unless lately nights are cool 3 & 4th Sept 1838. Frost & I discover my

210 There was a Merchants Daughter, whose friends all Papist were,
The Lord her Heart, did soften to seek his favor by Prayer She soon obtained his favor

Delighted in his name renounce her former Idols Content to suffer Shame, with weeping & with wailing to her mother she did go Assemble all the Council that they the truth might know - and when they were assembled the damsel they did call, and cast her into prison to frighten her withall The more they strove to frighten her the firmer she did endure, I value not your torment nor yet your fiery flame, I hope that Christ my Saviour will ease my mortal frame, Before the Judge they carried her hoping she would turn, But when their efforts failed them she was condemned to burn, took off her Golden Bracelets with cords they bound her fast, & Lord gave me Patience to die for them at last So come her mother her Daughter to behold and in her hands she brought a Book covered over with gold, take hence from me those Idols convey them from my sight, and give to me my Bible wherein I take delight Weep not for me dear mother pray be content The just who formed against me when I was innocent, torment & do your office with me as you think Best I hope that Christ my Saviour will take my Sould to rest; ye Ladies of this City mark well these words said she, yourselves ye bitter pity & mourn for your decay, amend your lives fair I pray, dont delay -
